The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo;
No more on life's parade shall meet
The brave and fallen few.
On fame's eternal camping ground
Their silent tents are spread.
And glory guards with solemn round
The bivouac of the dead.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

Margaret Darlington Drinks Carbolic Acid—Condition Serious.

Saturday afternoon at about 1 o'clock Margaret Darlington, of Manchester, Ohio, attempted to commit suicide by drinking a quantity of carbolic acid in her rooms at No. 12 East Front St. The cause of her rash act seems to have been despondency over misplaced confidence and failure to obtain work, according to a note she wrote to her sister and which was found in her room.

Moments and cries of pain were heard by Mr. Ray Griffith who was working in the Central Garage near by, and he rushed to the house to ascertain the cause. There he met Mr. Sherman Wilson and called his attention to the sounds which came from upstairs undoubtedly from a woman who was in great distress. Mr. Wilson called Mrs. Harry Huron and together they rushed upstairs and into the room occupied by the Darlington woman whom they found moaning and writhing in pain. They called down stairs to Mr. Griffith, told him what the trouble was and while he rushed for a doctor they rendered such assistance as they could to the suffering woman.

Mr. Griffith soon arrived with Dr. J. H. Samuel in his automobile who examined the woman and found her seriously burned from carbolic acid about the throat and mouth. The doctor succeeded in relieving the patient of a large quantity of the acid and administered antidotes with the result that this morning she is resting well and will probably recover completely in a few days.

WILLIAM MASON RETURNS HOME

William Mason, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason of Wood street, who has been missing since last Wednesday night, returned home on Saturday, after a trip to Ashland and other points.

DR. FRENCH DIES

Well Known in Maysville, Having Married Miss Mary Hord
Elgin in 1909.

Word was received Sunday of the death in New Orleans, La., of Dr. R. C. French, of Natchez, Miss., who married in 1909 Miss Mary Hord Elgin of this city.

Dr. French was a successful young physician and was known in this city before and after his marriage. His mother, a Miss Runyan, of near Minerva, was a native of this county. Besides his wife Dr. French is survived by his mother, a sister, Mrs. Audina Patterson, known in Mason and Fleming counties where she frequently visited as Miss Adna French before her marriage, and a little son, Clement French, Jr.

Although Dr. French had been desperately ill for the past week following an operation for appendicitis, reports for the past few days had been so encouraging that his recovery was hoped for.

Mr. J. W. Elgin and Mrs. Stanley Reed, father and sister of Mrs. French, left on Sunday afternoon for Natchez, Miss., where the interment will take place.

REGULARS TRIMMED

Regulars Downfall.

Sunday the Ludlow White Sox defeated the Regulars of this city by the score of 7 to 2, in a game that was exciting in places. Luck was against the Regulars and although their twirlers struck out ten White Sox, some errors and bad throwing cost them the game. The playing of Manager Dresel easily featured for the Regulars, while Ziegler was the whole show for the Sox. The following is the score:

Notes.

The Sox will play here this afternoon again. The game will be called at 2 p. m. sharp. The Regulars will probably pitch McDonald, while the Sox will use Bryant. The Regulars stand a line chance to wipe out yesterday's defeat, as the Sox star pitcher, Ziegler, will not be able to pitch this afternoon, and probably the Sox have run out of hits for they can not always put up the game they did on yesterday. Everybody knows that the Regulars can play good ball, so all come out and see the Regulars redeem themselves.

SOMETHING IN NAMES, AFTER ALL.

We are told that there is nothing in a name, but let us see if—

DEMOCRACY is not merely a DELUSION, reducing government to a state of DECADENCE which leaves no doubt of its DEFICIENCY, bringing on business DEPRESSION, which creates general DESPAIR, resulting in complete DESTRUCTION were it not for the fact that REPUBLICAN success will bring about a REVIVAL of business and a RECOVERY from despair, REDEMPTION from destruction, a RESTORATION of confidence and RESUMPTION of prosperity resulting in a glorious RESURRECTION.

Attention is called to the fact that lightning struck a man who was practicing on the cornet in California. If all the men practicing on that instrument were thus hit, it might be difficult for the neighbors to show the proper degree of sympathy.

If Germany should declare war against us, it looks as if those liners tied up in our harbors may make it possible to acquire a merchant marine much cheaper than could have been done under the shipping bill.

This is the time of year when the girl with large feet never feels quite comfortable until she has been to the stores and equipped herself with a pair of orange tinted russet shoes and a short skirt.

The fact that a man can spend half an hour looking for a lost golf ball does not mean that he can wait two minutes while his wife looks for her gloves.

There is a popular feeling that the enjoyment you get from looking at the flowers in your neighbor's garden never causes you any backache.

Elaborate plans as usual are being made for the patriotic celebration of the national Memorial Day by double header ball games.

THE NAPOLEON BROTHERS.

Both of the Napoleon brothers, Victor and Louis, famous for their mirth-provoking act entitled "The French Pretenders," celebrated birthdays recently on the same week. Louis, the younger, passed the half century mark, while Prince Victor Napoleon, who would sit on the imperial throne of France if the republic hadn't destroyed that piece of furniture, was fifty-two. Louis was Victor's heir to the pretendership until about a year ago, when a son was born to Victor and his royal spouse, Princess Clementine of Belgium.

Victor is a grandnephew of Emperor Napoleon I. He lives in Brussels, and in 1910 married Clementine, the third daughter of King Leopold I. of Belgium. The birth of another Bonaparte heir was hailed with great delight by the few followers of the Pretender and the Pretenderess, and the christening of the infant Prince Louis "King of Rome" was marked by imperial pomp and eclat. The ceremony took place in the palatial premises of the proud papa in the Avenue Louise. Most of the Imperialists of France were there and did not crowd the building.

Prince Louis, the younger brother of the Pretender, is apparently a confirmed bachelor. He served in the Russian army for many years, with the rank of lieutenant-general, but now resides at Geneva, where the Napoleons own a fine chateau.

We are often led to wonder if Col. Roosevelt ever will accustom himself to not being President of the United States.

Fun Under Fire.

A number of veterans of the Civil War were swapping stories when one related this:

"A striking characteristic of my old comrade, Amos Stillman, Company A, Twenty-third Massachusetts Volunteers, was bravery in actual fighting service. Another characteristic was a sense of humor which stood him in good stead, even in the face of danger and contributed not a little to the gaiety of his comrades.

"At the battle of Cold Harbor, just before making the charge and while under the Confederate fire, our corporal, who was over six feet tall and scarcely bigger around than a gun barrel, became excited as the enemy's bullets plowed up the earth about him.

"What kind of a place is this to keep a man in?" he demanded. "Absolutely without protection!"

"He had no more than spoken when Private Stillman stuck his raucous in the ground.

"Here, corporal," said he, "get behind this."

MISSION OF THE RURAL CHURCH

SHOULD BE UNIVERSITY OF RELIGIOUS LEARNING.

Duty of Christianity to Evangelize the World.

By Rev. Jno. A. Rice, D. D.
Pastor St. John M. E. Church, South, St. Louis, Mo.

Some years ago, the question was asked: What is a college? The attempt to answer it shook the educational world in America from center to circumference. Another question is now beginning to be asked: What is a church? Without undertaking to give a definition of it, let me ask, in this initial paper, what the church is for? The New Testament reveals three distinct tasks to which it is committed.

First, that of evangelization. The church is divinely commissioned to reach for the lowest and the least man in the least land and offer him sonship to the Eternal God; offer him a divine power, which lifts him out of the beg and places him upon the highest levels of human life, where God and the soul are in fellowship. This alone was an immense privilege.

Teaching the Art of Living.

The church is commissioned also to teach and train those who are rich with its evangelistic message. The term, Religious Education, has come to mean a specific thing in our country, namely, the training of the people in the local church in those deep matters which pertain to the art of living. I am not now speaking of the work of education in schools, colleges and universities, but the work of education at our doors, in the congregation. Every agency in reach should be employed to the utmost in this important mission. Indeed, the local church could be made a sort of university for all the people, in which the simple, practical arts and virtues of everyday life should be taught and enforced. Only recently has this special phase of the church's work received anything like adequate attention. The New Testament word for it is Edification.

School of Religion Needed.

Of course, the Sunday School is the center for all this work, although the activities of the church should extend through the entire week and the Sunday School should cease to be so named. It should be called the School of Religion or the Church School or something else that indicates it to be an all-the-week activity. During this time various and sundry clubs, classes, musical organizations, culture courses, as well as distinctly religious meetings, should be held. Thickly settled neighborhoods as we shall see, offer fine opportunities for the development of things spiritual.

The third task to which the church is committed is that of Christianizing the social order; that of infusing the spirit of Jesus into every nook and corner of our life. Nothing is foreign to the interest of the church.

Neighborhood Love Essential.

If religion pervades and colors the whole life then ours is serious business, for it will let no corner of the world escape its influence. The sooner we learn that Christianity is not a thing to be practiced in a corner the better for the world. The question of the eighteenth century, touching Christianity, was, Can it be made to square with the human reason? Of the nineteenth, Can it be made to square with the results of scientific research? Of the twentieth, What can it do? We must learn to enforce not only love of God, whom we cannot see, but love to our neighbors, with whom we are living in constant contact. Neither without the other is Christianity whatever else it may be. Everything that interests his neighbors must interest him, if he is a genuine follower of the Christ.

It is the mission of the church—the rural as well as the city—to evangelize the whole world, to train to the highest degree of efficiency those whom it evangelizes and to seek to make the spirit of Jesus the absolute rule in all human relations.

It is an admitted economic fact that there can be no permanent prosperity without a permanent agriculture.

THE NATION'S DINNER TABLE

When the dinner bell of this nation rings there have been slaughtered for the feast 13,000 hogs, 21,000 sheep, 2,000 hundredweight of poultry and other meats, and there have been 700,000 bushels of cereals and 540,000,000 pounds of vegetables prepared for the feast. Multiply these quantities by one thousand, representing approximately the number of meals per annum, and we have the annual contents of the nation's larder. But with all our immense quantity, superb quality and wide range of products, the American housewife, like the wife of King Nebuchadnezzar, longs for variety and she goes marketing in foreign lands. She buys abroad $200,000,000 per annum of farm products that can and should be produced in the United States.

Andrew D. White, now eighty years old, of Ithaca, N. Y., has taken up the study of criminology.

MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS

Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.:—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

THE BED ROOM

To often the bed room is considered as just a place to sleep; a part of the house that does not require any special attention as to lighting because it is seen only by members of the family. Yet correct lighting arrangement—the installation of harmonious chandeliers, in a manner to give effective illumination—will make this one of the most used rooms of the whole house—a cozy home in itself.

By the use of a simple, but graceful chandelier in the center of the room, and two or more wall brackets of harmonious design, the bedroom is fitted to serve as a study or sewing room.

Then, too, a wall bracket placed at each side of the dresser adds much to the ease and pleasure of dressing. Only when she has a perfect light by which to make her toilet can Milady be absolutely certain that every little detail is as it should be.

EARLY REPLY TO U. S. NOTE URGED BY AMBASSADOR.

Berlin (Via Wireless to London), May 28.—The German foreign office today received a cablegram from Ambassador Bernstorff, at Washington, urging the earliest possible reply to the American note regarding the Lusitania incident.

"Tension in America has been increased by the damage done the American steamer Nebraska," Bernstorff cabled. "The Nebraska incident is still an unexplained mystery."

The Hague correspondent of the Evening News reported today the German reply to the American note will be sent tonight.

RIPLEY WET BY 73.

Ripley, O., May 28.—After a strenuous campaign that has lasted for over a month, this place voted wet yesterday at the wet and dry election. The wet majority was 73. Both sides fought hard and neither would concede the other a winner until all the votes were counted.

SPEEDER GETS WORST OF IT.

Friday, Pete Faulkner, of this city, who was at Danville in the capacity of chauffeur for the Knights Templar, of this city, who were attending the State encampment at that place, decided to take a joy ride. After loading the Paige with several other colored people, Pete hit the pike and started to burn it up, at about 45 miles an hour. He lost control of the machine and plunged into a stump on the right side of the road and the shock of the collision veered the car to the left side where he broke off a telephone pole near its base. Not satisfied with this performance, the machine again turned its course and went to the right, this time going through a stone wall imbedded in cement and here it stopped and rolled over on its top. Pete climbed out of the car with a bruised limb and sent a message to Mr. Bartlett, of this city, to come and take the car home. Mr. Bartlett, after he saw the car, was undecided whether he would take the car home or not, as it was one of the worst looking piles of junk he ever saw. Pete arrived home last night badly bruised and very sore.

Young Women In Charge of Children's Hours at Redpath Chautauquas

ONE of the young women in this group will be here during Chautauquin week to conduct children's games and stories. Each morning and afternoon, beginning the second day, she will meet with the boys and girls and entertain them with folk tales and folk dances as well as with lively games and exercises.

One of the prime objects of the children's department is to preach the doctrine of public recreation. During Chautauquin week the story hour girl will demonstrate to patrons and children the joys, advantages and benefits of supervised play. Every moment will be supremely attractive, with two great objects always in view—namely, to develop the social instinct among children and to cultivate a wholesome love for the great outdoors. Almost without their knowledge the children are taught to be friendly, obedient, neat and polite.

The children's department of Redpath Chautauquas is a feature that in recent years has enjoyed a wonderful increase in popularity. It is one of the many good things that make the Chautauquin one of the community's greatest assets.

FEDERAL INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

By Peter Radford.

The recent investigation of the United States Commission of Industrial Relations brought together the extremes of society and has given the public an opportunity to view the representatives of distinct classes, side by side, and to study their views in parallel columns.

Capital and labor have always been glaring at each other over gulfs of misunderstanding and if the Federal Industrial Commission attempts to bridge the chasm, it will render the public a distinct service.

The farmer has been sitting on the fence watching capital and labor fight for many years and incidentally furnishing the sheaves of wheat and it is quite gratifying to find them talking with, instead of about, each other. When honest men smile and look into each other's souls, it always makes the world better and far more satisfactory to the farmer, who in the end, bears the burden of conflict, than resolutions, speeches or pamphlets containing charges and counter-charges.

The love for justice makes the whole world kin. Understanding is an arbiter far more powerful than the mandates of government, for there is no authority quite so commanding as an honest conscience; there is no decree quite so binding as that of the Supreme Court of Common Sense and no sheriff can keep the peace quite so perfect as Understanding.

We suppose the time will never come when capital and labor will not be occasionally blinded by the lightning flashes of aversion or frightened by the thunder peals of discontent. But Understanding is a Prince of Peace that ever holds out the olive branch to men who want to do right. A man's income is always a sacred thing for in it are the hope, ambition and opportunity of himself, and family, but there is nothing in a human heart quite so divine as Justice and Understanding is its handmaiden.

NOTHING TO IT BUT BIG NOISE

It did not need the Lusitania tragedy to sniff out public interest in the Barnes-Roosevelt case. That ended when the Colonel stopped talking.

KNOW THY COUNTRY

II—Railroads

In discussing the commercial achievements of this great age, we shall approach the subject as the historian chronicling events. This series will endeavor to record in writing the supremacy of American men and industries in the world's affairs and perpetuate an appreciation of our marvelous industrial achievements by presenting simple facts, figures and comparisons that are overpowering in their convictions.

America holds her proud place among the nations of the earth today on account of her supremacy in transportation facilities. The mighty minds of the age are engaged in the problems of transportation, and the greatest men in the history of the world's commerce are at the head of the transportation systems of the United States.

In the discussion of transportation, let us consider separately our Railways, Telegraph and Telephones, Express, Public Highways, Steamships, Street Railways, Interurban and other forms of transportation, and this article will deal with railways.

The United States has the largest mileage, the best service, the cheapest rates, pays labor the highest wages, and we have the most efficiently managed of the railways of the world. They stand as a monument to the native genius of our marvelous builders, and most of the railroads in foreign countries have been built under American orders.

The railroads represent a larger investment of capital than any other branch of human activity. The mileage in the United States exceeds the accepted distance from the earth to the moon. We had in 1911, the last year in which figures for all countries are available, on the earth's surface, 639,981 miles of railway divided as follows: United States 241,199, Europe 207,432 and other countries 191,350. The United States has 38 per cent of the world's mileage, seven per cent of the estimated population and about five per cent of the area. The total capital invested in the railways of the world is $50,000,000,000, divided as follows: United States $13,000,000,000, Europe $25,000,000,000 and other countries $11,500,000,000. Reduced to a mileage basis the capitalization is as follows: The world $78,000, United States $54,000, Europe $124,000, and other countries $59,000.

A comparison of rates is equally as interesting and the United States takes the lead in economy and service. The average rate per ton per hundred mile haul is as follows: United States 76c, Great Britain $2.53, France $1.44, Germany $1.44, Russia 93c, Austria-Hungary $1.30, Italy $2.30 and Switzerland $2.82.

The average yearly pay of all railroad employees in the principal countries is as follows: United States $757, Germany $392, Italy $345, Austria $322, Great Britain $279, France $260 and Russia $204.

About 30 per cent, or 183,000 miles, of the railways of the world are government owned. About half the railway mileage of Europe is government owned.

A comparison of the economy, in time and money and the convenience in travel, will be made in a later article.

WHY IS WOMAN RESTLESS?

DESTINY OF NATIONS DEPENDS UPON CONTENTED HOMES.

By W. D. Lewis.

President Texas Farmers' Union.

Why is woman dissatisfied? Why does she grow restless under the crown of womanhood? Why is she weary of the God-given jewel of motherhood? Is it not a sufficient political achievement for woman that future rulers nurse at her breast, laugh in her arms and kneel at her feet? Can ambition leap to more glorious heights than to slide lullabies to the world's greatest geniuses, chant melodies to master minds and rock the cradle of human destiny?

God pity our country when the hand-shake of the politician is more gratifying to woman's heart than the father of children's feet.

Woman is Ruler Over All.

Why does woman chafe under restraint of sex? Why revile the hands of nature? Why discard the skirts that civilization has clung to since the beginning of time? Why lay aside this hallowed garment that has wiped the tears of sorrow from the face of childhood? In its sacred embrace every generation has hidden its face in shame; clinging to its motherly folds, tottering children have learned to play hide and seek and from it youth learned to reverence and respect womanhood. Can man think of his mother without this consecrated garment?

Why this inordinate thirst for power? Is not woman all powerful? Man cannot enter this world without her consent, he cannot remain in peace without her blessing and unless she sheds tears of regret over his departure, he has lived in vain. Why this longing for civil power when God has made her ruler over all? Why crave authority when man bows down and worships her? Man has given woman his heart, his name and his money. What more does she want?

Can man find it in his heart to look with pride upon the statement that his honorable mother-in-law was one of the most powerful political bosses in the country, that his distinguished grandmother was one of the ablest filibusters in the Senate or that his mother was a noted warrior and her name a terror to the enemy? Whither are we drifting and where will we land?

God Save Us From a Hen-Pecked Nation.

I follow the plow for a living and my views may have in them the smell of the soil; my hair is turning white under the frost of many winters and perhaps I am a little old-fashioned, but I believe there is more moral influence in the dress of woman than in all the statute books of the land. As an agency for morality, I wouldn't

DO IT NOW

Maysville People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

As a power for purifying society, I wouldn't give one penny of my sanity neither for all the women's votes in Christendom. As an agency for good government, I wouldn't give the plea of a mother's heart for righteousness for all the oaths of office in the land. There is more power in the smile of woman than in an act of congress. There are greater possibilities for good government in her family of laughing children than in the cabinet of the president of the United States.

The destiny of this nation lies in the home and not in the legislative halls. The hearthstone and the family table will ever remain the source of our inspiration and the Acts of the Apostles will ever shine brighter than the acts of Congress.

This country is law-mad. Why add to a statute book already groaning under its own weight, the hysterical cry of woman? If we never had a chance to vote again in a lifetime and did not pass another law in twenty-five years, we could survive the ordeal, but without home, civilization would wither and die.

God save these United States from becoming a hen-pecked nation; help us keep sissies out of Congress and forbid that women become step-fathers to government, is the prayer of the farmers of this country.

A DIVINE COVENANT.

God Almighty gave Eve to Adam with the pledge that she would be his helpmeet and with this order of companionship, civilization has towered to its greatest heights. In this relationship, God has blessed woman and man has honored her and after four thousand years of progress, she now proposes to provoke God to decoy man by asking for suffrage, thereby by amending an agreement to which she was not a party.

Woman, remember that the Israelite scorned a divine covenant, and as a result wandered forty years in the wilderness without God. Likewise man should remember that it is a dangerous thing to debate woman by law. Rome tried lowering woman's standard and an outraged civilization tore the clothes off the backs of the human race and turned them out to roam in the world naked and unashamed.

UNION HEROES HONORED ON YESTERDAY

Memorial services were conducted by Joe Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R., yesterday afternoon and were attended by a large number of people. The graves had been decorated in the morning so that with the completion of these services the exercises of the day were completed. This meeting was presided over by George Harding. Boyd Muse directed the singing of the patriotic hymns; Miss Thelma Stahl recited the poem, "The Blue and the Grey." George W. Wallingford led in prayer. The speaker was Rev. A. F. Stahl, who spoke at length on American liberty and the manner in which this liberty has been received and will be maintained. He commended the purpose of Memorial day but thought the day would not be properly observed if by thinking of the heroic deeds of the wars, we exalted wars and increased our love for conflict rather than make all realize the awful cost of war and help toward a peaceful settlement of all difficulties.

He referred to the various wars of the United States and showed they were all waged in the name of liberty and humanity. In speaking of the Civil strife, he said: "This was fought for the same principle though viewed from a different angle. It was necessary that this Union be maintained for the sake of our national liberty. As Webster said of our government, 'It is to that union that we owe our safety and our honor and our dignity and consideration abroad.' A Southern writer has aptly said that 'When Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation he committed the North to the cause of human liberty, against which the arms of men can not prevail.'"

The Civil war was not a conflict with a foreign foe but in it Americans were fighting against Americans. We pay tribute today to the warriors engaged in that conflict. Shall we only remember those of the North and forget our brothers who because of their property interests, because of their location and their view of the Sovereign rights of the state took a position and the other side of this great struggle? That which was known as the North and South does not exist now. We are one in national spirit and any effort to continue the bitter feeling of earlier days is both un-American and unchristian. There were heroes on both sides. That is the reason that victory was not won in ninety days.

Upon this memorial day we are reminded that our fathers fought for liberty and that we should be spurred on by their heroic efforts to see that this liberty is made real. They declared our liberty, it is for every true American to secure it. There is a moral as well as a political field in which we must fight for freedom. There is that which is right and proper. When once as a people we know the truth we shall be free. Following is a list of those who are buried in the cemeteries named below:
